ARTICLE 4 - MILITARY SECURITY - If this contract is stamped "Restricted," "Confidential," or "Secret," the subject matter of this contract and all work hereunder have been determined to be classified military information, and as such to be governed by the provisions of the Espionage Act (U. S. Code, Title 50, Sections 31 and 32). In addition it is agreed that any classified information provided in connection with work on the project will be handled in accordance with such security regulations. In such cases, the Contractor shall bring the provisions of this paragraph to the attention of every person associated with his organization who has any connection with this project.

ARTICLE 5 - DISPUTES - All disputes concerning questions of fact, which may arise under this contract and which are not disposed of by mutual agreement, shall be decided by the Contracting Officer, who shall mail to the Contractor a written notification of his determination. Within 30 days from said mailing, the Contractor may appeal to the Agency head whose decision or that of his duly authorized representative shall be final and conclusive upon the parties. Pending decision of a dispute hereunder the Contractor shall diligently proceed with the performance of this contract.

ARTICLE 6 - TERMINATION AT THE OPTION OF THE GOVERNMENT - The performance of work under this contract may be terminated by the Government whenever the Contracting Officer shall determine that such action is for the best interests of the Government. If this contract is so terminated, fair compensation for the work performed will be provided for the Contractor.

ARTICLE 7 - NONDISCRIMINATION IN EMPLOYMENT - In connection with the performance of work under this contract, the Contractor agrees not to discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color, or national origin. The aforesaid provision shall include, but not be limited to, the following: Employment, upgrading, demotion, or transfer; recruitment or recruitment advertising; layoff or termination; rates of pay or other forms of compensation; and selection for training, including apprenticeship. The Contractor agrees to post hereafter in conspicuous places, available for employees and applicants for employment, notices to be provided by the contracting officer setting forth the provisions of the nondiscrimination clause.

The Contractor further agrees to insert the foregoing provisions in all subcontracts hereunder, except subcontracts for standard commercial supplies or raw materials.

ARTICLE 8 - COVENANT AGAINST CONTINGENT FEES - The Contractor warrants that it has not employed any person to solicit or secure this contract upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee. Breach of this warranty shall give the Government the right to annul this contract or, at its discretion, to deduct from the contract price or consideration the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee.

ARTICLE 9 - OFFICIALS NOT TO BENEFIT - No member of or Delegate to Congress, or Resident Commissioner, shall be admitted to any share or part of this contract or to any benefit that may arise therefrom unless it be made with a corporation for its general benefit.

ARTICLE 10 - DEFINITIONS -

(a) The term "Director" as used herein shall include his duly authorized representative.

(b) The term "Contracting Officer" as used herein shall include his duly appointed successor or his authorized representative.

ARTICLE 11 - EXAMINATION OF RECORDS -

(a) The Contractor agrees that the Comptroller General of the United States or any of his duly authorized representatives shall until the expiration of three years after final payment under this contract, have access to and the right to examine any directly pertinent books, documents, papers, and records of the Contractor involving transactions related to this contract.

(b) The Contractor further agrees to include in all his subcontracts hereunder a provision to the effect that the subcontractor agrees that the Comptroller General of the United States or any of his duly authorized representatives shall, until the expiration of three years after final payment under the subcontract have access to and the right to examine any directly pertinent books, documents, papers, and records of such subcontractor involving transactions related to the subcontract. The term "Subcontract" as used in this clause excludes (i) purchase orders not exceeding $1,000, and (ii) subcontracts or purchase orders for public utility services at rates established for uniform applicability to the general public.
